SCHOOL RESPONSIBILITIES

Headteacher and Governors

Head Teachers are responsible for the day-to-day Health and Safety management of schools and all staff directly employed by the school. This responsibility will include ensuring that staff are aware of the safety rules and procedures which apply and also that they have access to detailed and specific regulations affecting their work. In particular Head Teachers must be aware of the arrangements governing visits and general contractors whilst on the school premises.

The Local Authority may give a warning notice to any maintained school (community, community special, foundation, foundation special, voluntary aided or voluntary controlled) in its area where the safety (not the health) of staff or pupils is threatened by for example a break down in discipline.

Community Schools

In community schools the ultimate management of health and safety rests with the Local Authority, which is the employer and therefore has overall control of the premises. The Authority is responsible for health and safety in community schools but has delegated those responsibilities to the governors of each school. Governors are therefore expected to comply with the Health and Safety Guidance of the Authority and the schools own health and safety policy

Aided Schools

In aided schools, the governing body has similar responsibilities as employers to those set out above for community schools. They have total responsibility for all health and safety matters and control of premises. In some circumstances there may be staff employed by the Local Authority working on your premises, you do have responsibility for these staff as visitors. The Local Authority will provide health and safety support and guidance.

Headteachers / Governors Roles

- Monitor the effectiveness of the safety policy;
- Make arrangements to ensure that all staff employed by the school, and all other persons working on the premises, are aware of all policies, risk assessments and all other relevant health and safety information;
- Understand head teachers and governors responsibilities under the Health and Safety at Work Act, in relation to the roles and responsibilities of BMBC;
- Ensure that staff are aware of and seek advice in the event of an unusual situation which is likely to be a health and safety hazard;
- Make arrangements and implement the Local Authority's accident reporting procedure and ensure that staff are aware of the system;
- Ensure accidents are reported and investigated where necessary, and ensure control measures are implemented;
- Develop and maintain safe working practices;
- Ensure that all staff are aware of the first aid arrangements and first aiders;
- Ensure the implementation of procedures in the event of fire and ensure that all staff are aware of their roles and responsibilities;
- Provide suitable induction training for all new staff;
- Identify health and safety training needs;
- Ensure all structural defects in contracted schools are reported to the Authority;
- Ensure staff have an awareness of relevant health and safety legislation and their responsibilities as employees;
- Where personal protective equipment is identified as necessary, ensure it is provided and maintained;
- Ensure there are suitable provisions for contractors working on site;

- Understand the organisation, role and powers of Health and Safety Executive Inspectors;
- Recognise that the policy, risk assessments and practices are not static, and ensure that the schools health and safety policies and procedures are updated and amended where necessary.

Employees

The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 states - "It shall be the duty of every employee whilst at work -

- (a) to take reasonable care for the health and safety of himself and of any other persons who may be affected by his acts or omissions at work: and
- (b) as regards any duty or requirement imposed on his employer or any other person by or under any of the relevant statutory provisions, to co-operate with him so far as it is necessary to enable that duty or requirement to be performed or complied with".

The Act also states "No person shall intentionally or recklessly interfere with or misuse anything provided in the interest of health, safety or welfare in pursuance of any of the relevant statutory provisions".

All employees:

- have a general responsibility for the application of the Authority's Safety Policy, and any School Policy, to their own department or area of work and are directly responsible to the Head for the application of existing safety measures and procedures within that department/area of work. Advice or instructions given by the Authority and the Head, including the relevant parts of this statement, shall be observed;
- shall, where necessary, establish and maintain safe working procedures including arrangements for ensuring, as far as is reasonably practicable, safety and absence or risk to health in connection with the use, handling storage and transport of articles and substances, (e.g. chemicals, boiling water, duplicating fluid, guillotines); they should also refer to documents produced for these products under the COSHH Regulations;
- shall resolve any health and safety problems any member of staff may refer to them and refer to the Head any of these problems for which they cannot achieve a satisfactory solution within the resources available to them;
- shall carry out a regular safety inspection of the activities for which they are responsible and, where necessary, submit a report to the Head;
- shall ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, the provision of sufficient information, instruction, training and supervision to enable other employees and pupils to avoid hazards and contribute positively to their own safety and health at work;
- shall, where appropriate, seek the advice and guidance of the relevant Adviser or Officer of the Authority;
- shall propose to the Head requirements for safety equipment and on additions or improvements to plant, tools, equipment or machinery which are dangerous or potentially so.

It is recognised by the Trade Union organisations that the disciplinary procedure would be relevant in circumstances where employees choose to disregard these responsibilities.

Class Teachers and Teaching Assistants

The class teacher is responsible for the safety of pupils whilst in classrooms, workshops and laboratories, this has been a statutory duty since 1987.

Where class teachers or teaching assistants have concerns regarding the various safety issues for example class sizes, condition of equipment etc. They should discuss the problems with the Head Teacher or Head of Department before the lesson. Class Teachers and teaching assistants should:

- Liaise with and recommend to the Head of the Department or Head teacher any safety issues and hazards such as class sizes, condition of equipment and also recommend additions and discuss improvements that can be implemented.
- ensure that before the lesson, by carrying out a risk assessment, that all protective clothing, guards, screens, etc. plus any special safety procedures are available and will be used;

- they personally should follow safe procedures and working practices;
- know the various safety procedures in their teaching areas including the location of any safety equipment, they should ensure that all the procedures are followed:
- control and supervise the pupils and ensure that safety rules and protective equipment are followed and used:
- ensure that safety instructions are clear and understood and check frequently that they are being followed:

Caretakers and Site Managers

Caretakers and site managers are key members of the school staff in that they are often the first person to notice health and safety hazards and are, in a large number of schools, the 'contact person' for reporting faults and liaising with contractors on site.

Their role within the school's safety arrangements should be clearly defined and all staff made aware of this role.

Caretakers should follow the health and safety and methods of working detailed in the Section 3 of this health and safety manual.

First Aiders

All schools must have at least one First Aider who can provide trained support in the event of an accident or illness to any employee, and non-employee. Where the risk of injury is identified as significant, such as during PE lessons and within DT Workshops and Science labs, access to a First Aider and first aid equipment must be readily available (including provision of a wash basin or sterile water).

Pupils

Pupils are expected to:

- exercise personal responsibility for the safety of self and class-mates;
- wear the correct clothing consistent with safety and/or hygiene (this would preclude unsuitable footwear, knives and other items considered dangerous);
- follow all the safety rules of the school and in particular the instructions of teaching staff given in an emergency;
- only use, and not wilfully misuse, neglect or interfere with things provided for his/her safety.

NB: It is essential that all pupils and parents are made aware of the requirements of this section.

Visitors

The Health and Safety at Work Act, 1974 imposes a general duty of care on most people associated with work activities. Everyone employed in educational establishments is protected by the Act and employers have an obligation to ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, that persons NOT EMPLOYED by them who may be affected by their activities are not exposed by their actions to health or safety risks within the school premises. (Health and Safety at work Act, 1974 Section 3.)

Visitors should report to the Head Teacher or Office on arrival at the school, they should be required to observe the safety rules of the school, in particular parents helping out in school should be made aware of the health and safety arrangements applicable to them through the Teacher to whom they are assigned, and should not be asked to carry out tasks for which they are not 'competent', trained or authorised for.

In addition, the 'Occupiers Liability Act 1957' introduced a 'common duty of care' which an occupier owes to all visitors other than trespassers. This duty required him/her to see that visitors were reasonably safe in using the premises for the purpose for which they were invited, or permitted to be there. In 1984 the Occupiers Liability Act was updated and occupiers must also take reasonable care to see that trespassers do not suffer personal injury whilst on the premises.

Contractors

Contractors should report to the Head Teacher or Office on arrival at the school and outside contractors working on educational premises are required to ensure safe working practices by their employers under the provision of the Health and Safety at Work Act and must pay due regard to the safety of all persons using those premises in accordance with Section 3 and 4 of the Health and Safety at Work Act. They should also inform the school of any hazardous operations they intend to carry out and liaise with the appropriate person on site regarding this work. They should also have available COSHH assessments for any substances they intend to use. In instances where the contractor creates hazardous conditions and refuses to eliminate them the Head or Principal must take actions as are necessary to prevent persons in his/her care from risk of injury and inform Corporate Resources, or where the work has not been procured through Corporate Resources they should speak to their planning officer. For further information please refer to See Section 3 of this manual - Contractors in Schools.
